Have your say!

The County Council is seeking your views on the most effective use of a small amount of national capital investment money from the government (£2.7 million). Your views will also inform priorities for any potential future capital and revenue funding streams that may become available for children and young people with SEND.

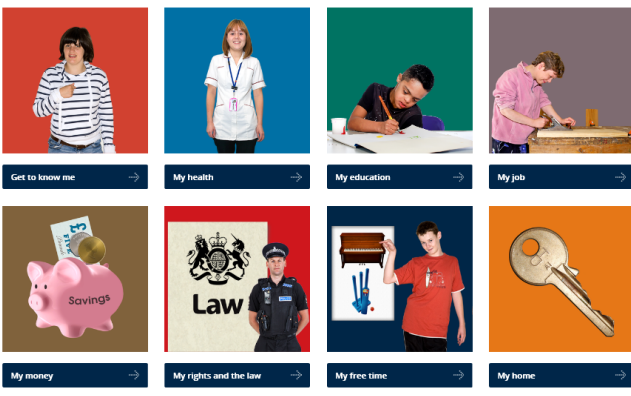

We are interested in the views of professionals from education, health and social care services, but we would especially like to hear the views of parents, carers and young people.

To submit your views visit the Local Offer website [SEND Local Offer > Local Offer news, views and reviews > Views > SEND sufficiency consultation] and take the survey.

Local Offer for children and young people

Local Offer for children and young people

Welcome to the area of the SEND Local Offer which is for young people age 10-25

Children and young people across Norfolk have been telling us what they think is important to them in a Local Offer website, as well as how they would like to see that information - fewer words, easy read text and videos - and importantly a website they can contribute to the content - who better to explain to a young person what it is like to do something new than a young person who has already done it!

This new section of the existing Local Offer website can be found at [SEND Local Offer > Local Offer for children and young people] and includes information on things such as:

- Things I like to do
- People who can help to stay healthy
- Places you can learn
- Tips on filling in a job application
- What is a bank account
- Disability hate crime
- Play and learn online
- Paying for your home
- And much, much more...

We have also set up a Children and Young People's Local Offer Forum - but with a difference - The Local Offer team are asking groups of children and young people to invite us into your school, college or group to tell us what you want on your Local Offer. If you would like to take part, speak to your teacher, tutor or group leader and ask them to email send@norfolk.gov.uk.
