

New Interest Challenge

The idea of this sheet is to help you find out about something you are might be interested in for the future

Think about something you think you might like. You can Ask, Look or use the Computer – ALC.

You might want to ask to look at the 'Children's Subject Index' booklet. It may give you some ideas. Try to find a book or a website about your new interest.

What have you found?

- A book?
- An encyclopaedia?
- A website?

Now spend some time and try to find out three new things you like.

- 1 _____
- 2 _____
- 3 _____

Well done!!

Now another big step in your learning:

Can you write down three new things you would like to find out?

- 1 _____
- 2 _____
- 3 _____

Now try to find out the answers to these questions.

Remember ALC

Working like this means you are working as a researcher.
You will be able to use this way of working all your life.
