Horning

Known as the 'Jewel of the Broads', Horning is a very pretty village with many thatched properties and lovely views of the River Bure. Take a boat trip or enjoy the many tea rooms, restaurants, pubs and shops. Nearby Horning Ferry has a marina and inn. Half a mile outside the village, the 13th century church of St Benedict is well worth a visit. Set on a hill, it has fine views of the river and marshes and has countryside walks nearby. If you're lucky you might spot Marsh Harriers and Swallowtail butterflies.

St Benet's Abbey

Visit the atmospheric ruins of St Benet's Abbey on the banks of the River Bure. In the Abbey's heyday in the 12th century, pilgrims, traders and royalty were among those who visited. The abbey is a pleasant walk or bike ride away from Ludham Bridge. www.stbenetsabbey.org

About the Three Rivers Way Norfolk Broads - Hoveton to Horning

Explore the first section of the Three Rivers Way, from Hoveton to Horning - two of the most popular riverside villages in the Broads National Park.

This two and a half mile route passes through beautiful countryside with ancient hedgerows, providing ready access to the Broads and the River Bure at each end - Hoveton and Horning.

The Broads National Park is the UK's largest protected wetland and the third largest inland waterway. Home to many species of birds, it has a rich variety of habitats from shallow lakes and marshes to fens and woodland.

Whether you decide to start at Hoveton or Horning, you'll find all you need for a great day out - bike hire, cafés, inns and shops. The route links up with adjoining paths so you can create your own circular walk and there's easy access to many local attractions such as historic churches, BeWILDerwood and the RAF Radar Museum.

Things to see and do

Hoveton

Sitting on the River Bure, Hoveton is a lively, bustling centre for boating on the Broads. Along with near neighbour Wroxham, on the opposite side of the river, the two are known as the capital of the Broads. Here you can enjoy the sights and sounds of the waterways and there are plenty of places to eat, drink and shop.

Wroxham Barns

Fun activities for all the family - junior farm, feed the lambs, fun fair, crafts, and mini golf.
