

Route Instructions

1. Start at the Green Quay. Facing the river, turn right along the quayside.
2. Where the road bends right in to King's Staithe Square, continue straight on by the riverside, crossing the sluice.
3. Immediately after crossing the sluice, turn right on to Purfleet Quay, passing the statue.
4. When you reach the Custom House (Tourist Information Centre), turn left on to King Street. Walk along King Street until you reach Tuesday Market Place.
5. Turn right, making your way around the Market Place past the Dukes Head Hotel and the Maids Head pub and then turn right onto St Nicholas Street.
6. At the end of St Nicholas Street, you will see St Nicholas Chapel in front of you. Turn left onto St Ann's Street.
7. At the end of St Ann's Street, turn right on to North Street. At the end, turn right on to John Kennedy Road. Continue down this road (which becomes Railway Road) until you reach the cross road junction with Blackfriars Street and Blackfriars Road.
8. Cross to the corner of Blackfriars road and follow the path in to The Walks past St John's Church. Walk down to the fountain and then turn left on to a path that heads back up towards the road. This path takes you past St John's Church and on to St John's Walk. Bear right on this path past the Red Mount Chapel.
9. At the crossroads, turn right along Broad Walk.
10. Cross the road to Millfleet passing the red carrstone library on your right.
11. At the end of the road, continue straight on past Church Street to Nelson Street.
12. Turn left along St Margaret's Lane and at the end, turn right to arrive back at the Green Quay.

"Being a pirate on a big ship, I'm at sea a lot but when we arrive at an exciting new town or city, I have to get off the boat and explore with my crew; it's great fun doing all sorts of activities along the way, seeing and learning about new things. When I'm venturing out to strange parts, I feel much safer with my crew!"
